HELP YOUR CHILD TRANSITION

Middle School

Keep a positive attitude.

The best way for a parent to help ease this transition is to show excitement about middle school.

TIME MANAGEMENT.

Talk about their new class schedule and the importance of being on time.

Personal space.

Buy a lock for your child's new locker. Have them practice the combination on their own to feel prepared before school starts.

Make new friends.

As your child enters adolescence, encourage close relationships with peers who are supportive and loyal.
